Notice: Guidelines for e-Learning Courses

1. Flexible Viewing Schedule

You are NOT required to watch e-learning lectures during the specific times shown on your timetable. You may complete the lectures at any time convenient to you within the designated period.

2. Attendance & Deadlines

Failure to complete a lecture within the specified period will be recorded as an absence. Please note that accumulating absences beyond the permitted limit will automatically result in a fail grade (Grade F).

3. Individual Attendance Verification

Attendance is automatically tracked via your personal login records. Viewing lectures together on a shared monitor or through another student's account is strictly prohibited and will not be recognized for attendance.

4. Language of Instruction

All e-learning lectures are conducted in Korean, with English subtitles provided.
